

LEANbody

We are honoured and delighted to invite you to the International Symposium on Teaching in Medical Education: How to Teach Human Anatomy Effectively, organized by the Department of Anatomy and Clinical Anatomy and the Centre for Improvement of Teaching Competencies at the University of Zagreb School of Medicine as part of the ERASMUS+ project Lean in Medical Education: Reaching for Quality Management Tools to Teach Human Anatomy Effectively in a Multicultural and Multilingual Learning Space (LEANBODY).

The symposium will be held on Friday and Saturday, September 27 and 28, 2024, at the Čačković Hall, University of Zagreb School of Medicine, Šalata 3.

Experts from the University of Cambridge, University of Pécs, Masaryk University, Karolinska Institute, University of Zadar, and the University of Zagreb will be speakers and participants in a roundtable discussion on the challenges in teaching strategies and approaches tailored to new generations of students entering higher education. The Anatomy course will be used as an example to illustrate challenges encountered by educators across various academic programs.

To participate and receive a certificate, please register via the QR code or link where the symposium program is also available.

We look forward to your attendance,

Assoc. Prof. Ana Hladnik Project Professional Leader of Croatian part LEANBODY

Prof. Zdravko Petanjek
Head of Department of Anatomy and Clinical Anatomy
